

2018 Adult Learner of the Year

Awards Deadline: August 1, 2018

Level of Recognition:

- Four adult learners will be chosen for the Oklahoma Literacy Coalition Adult Learner of the Year Awards. Two learners will be selected for Adult Basic Education and two learners will be selected for ELL (English Language Learner).
- A plaque and a $100 monetary award will be presented during the OLC adult learner awards at the NCED in Norman.
- A certificate of nomination will be given to each adult learner nominated for the award.
- Each nominee will be listed in the event program.
- Each nominee will be featured in the program slide show.

Criteria:

- Evidence of achieving personal goals identified when tutoring began
- Evidence of how these achievements have impacted the learner's life
- Evidence of benefits to other students, local programs, and/or community; such as student orientations, program improvement, fundraising, and/or public relations
- Significant or unique contributions to the literacy program

Guidelines:

- Nominees must belong to a current OLC organizational member program.
- Programs may become members at the time of nomination.
- Each organization may submit up to four nominations, one for each award.
- Up to 5 points may be awarded for each of the four criteria listed above (20 points total).
- The OLC Awards Committee will review each nomination.
- If a nominee is from a committee member's organization, the member will be excused from voting and will be replaced with an impartial OLC board member.
- Please include two high-resolution jpeg photos of the nominee. These photos may be used for the program slideshow, OLC website, and social media sites. Your program is responsible for photo release agreements.
- The nominee is expected to attend the awards ceremony if they are chosen. The award ceremony will be held on September 23 at 2:00 pm. Please be sure they are available.
- Deadline August 1, 2018.
